

The Harefield Academy

Education Development Trust

At the Academy we work alongside the Education Development Trust who offer independent careers advice at points throughout your child's time at the school. This advice would support your child in making decisions about their next steps in their education and future career.

Please could you select and tick the applicable boxes on the Permission Form sent as part of your Admissions Pack and return to The Academy as requested.